

Doña Storey has been a successful business owner for over 30 years. As creator of the GOVtips.biz website and the World's Biggest Customer book series, she is an expert on federal and corporate procurement. Doña is an author, speaker, and moderator nationwide. She is an expert resource for publications such as: Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Inc., Forbes, Enterprising Women and MEA Magazine. Doña has published numerous Ezine articles and blogs on critical small business issues. She is currently a ForbesWoman Files contributor. Doña is the American Express OPEN Advisor on Procurement. She uses her experiences as an active woman-owned small business contractor to help small businesses navigate the procurement maze and find success.

